Enhancing communities

Over the life of the project Muse will make financial contributions towards local education and healthcare facilities, strengthening the burgeoning community

Improving The Environment

Muse is working with the contractor to re-use waste materials from the existing site, to reduce the demand for raw materials and lower haulage costs.

Working Together With Our Supply Chain

The new development has the potential to become one of the true success stories for the East Midlands in the coming years, bringing new jobs, new businesses, and a whole new community to Hucknall.
