People

The site establishes a new and attractive quarter and forms a link between the city's retail core and the 'South Bank' proposals which will see new transport hubs, schools, housing, workspaces and business opportunities taking shape over the next 20 years.

Planet

The building was designed and constructed to BREEAM Excellent, which has become one of the most comprehensive and widely recognised measures of a building's environmental performance.

Profit

As well as providing improved office facilities for KPMG, the building acted as a catalyst for the creation of a new business quarter in Leeds which will contribute to economic prosperity and maintain the city's reputation as the region's economic powerhouse.
