Muse continues North West expansion with Bentham hire

Muse Developments is delighted to announce that Max Bentham, formerly of Capital & Centric, has joined the North West office of Muse Developments as a senior development surveyor.

Max brings with him over a decade of experience from across the sector, where he will play a key role in the ongoing growth of its North West portfolio, working on projects in Salford initially, then across the wider region.

Starting his career at Urban Splash, Max moved over to Capital & Centric, working on a range of projects, including Foundry, Ducie Street Warehouse and Swan Street.

On the appointment, board director, Phil Mayall, said: "I'm delighted to welcome Max to the North West team. Max will be coming into the business at an exciting time, where we're expanding our portfolio and mix of schemes in the region, working on some truly game-changing developments.

"As a business, we've been focused on delivering our schemes safely and in line with current government guidelines. Our experience tells us that the country's economic recovery will come from our towns and cities and we're working hard with our tenacious teams, supporting our partners to help them achieve their aspirations for place-changing regeneration."

Max, added: "I'm excited to join a developer like Muse that's leading the way in investing in the region's communities and delivering innovative schemes with purpose in partnership. Muse has a strong pipeline across the North West and I'm looking forward to the challenge of working for one of the best in the industry during this period of growth."
